ABOUT US

The RiverView is a resident-led local newspaper. It includes news about the Barking Riverside development and the surrounding areas, as well as events, interviews and opinion pieces written by local residents.

The paper is run by an editorial board of local residents dedicated to helping everyone in the community to be engaged and involved in local decision-making. The work of the editorial board is supported by Thames Life Community Development Trust.

WHERE WE COVER

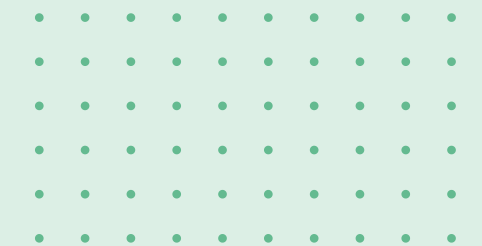

OUR AUDIENCE

The RiverView is a resident-led local newspaper. It's a free, not-for-profit quarterly publication.

The RiverView will soon have it's own website which will increase readership and help to reach a younger audience.

NEWSPAPER DIMENSIONS

Artwork for advertisements in The RiverView should be submitted at a minimum resolution of 200 dots per inch (dpi) to ensure it is suitable for printing and will reproduce faithfully.

Unless they are at least 1MB in size, images taken from the internet are unlikely to be suitable for printing. We accept artwork in a range of different file types. Our preferred file types are PDF, EPS, TIFF, JPEG, and AI. If submitting a JPEG image it is particularly important to ensure it is high resolution, suitable for printing. We are not able to use images in other formats such as: GIF, Word (.doc), or PowerPoint (.ppt). If you do not have your own artwork, a design service is available – please contact us to request a quote.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

The RiverView has a circulation of 6,000 copies per issue and an estimated readership of 18,000 people. It is distributed to every household across Barking Riverside, Scrattons Farm & Thames View – and also available from community venues within the local area.

Advertorials are also available; they are articles like an advert, where you decide what exactly goes in the paper, and we make clear that it is advertising material. This is available to book from ½ page size and above.

A 20% discount can be applied to secure ad space across 4 issues in a year, to be paid up front.
